Subject: WEF GFC on Mobility | City Mobility Charter

Dear Workstream members,

We will be hosting a "city mobility charter" workstream call on 10 April 10am EST. My apologies for the very short notice. This will be the first workstream call, and we will intend to have regular calls ever three weeks.

The purpose of the meeting will be to conduct initial planning for the City Mobility Charter workstream. The City of Amsterdam has done some preliminary work drafting an outline of the charter based on their experiences with new mobility players in their city. To facilitate a productive call, we ask you to complete the following action (should take no more than 10 minutes).

ACTION

- Prior to the call, please review the draft outline of the charter (Charter proposal from Amsterdam (latest version - 5 April)) put together by the City of Amsterdam (about 10 min)
- Please provide comment/ feedback regarding the charter's outline—What is missing?
- Please comment directly on the file or email the comments to me. Directions for commenting in the document below.

- Confirmation of problem statement (10 min)
  - How might cities and companies work together to provide innovative and efficient mobility options that increase the safety, sustainability and inclusivity of urban transportation? (see Overview document)
- Review feedback on charter (15 min)
  - What's missing?
  - Who is the audience?
  - What is the context?
- Brainstorm methodology (15 min)
  - How do we develop the charter?
- Generate timeline (5 min)
  - Targeting September
  - May/June/July event plug-in?
- Housekeeping (5 min)
  - Overview document finalization
  - Timeline planning
  - Resource pledge
    - Based on the conversations in the call, I expect clear next steps/deliverables to come up. Please be ready to raise your hand to move these forward.
