Dear [redacted] and [redacted]
I have had very good response to the email below and we now have Barcelona
Berlin
Stockholm
Oslo
Let me stress that this not about competition with London. You are not being asked to face a hostile audience with a competitive message.
I would really hope to have Paris and Amsterdam participate. So please advise if you think you can do it.
[redacted], will you be at MIPIM? If not, who from Paris do you suggest that I invite?
All good wishes,

[redacted]

Subject: MIPIM 2018 Panel debate on London Stand INVITATION

Dear [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted]

I hope to see you at MIPIM 2018.

I am working with the organisers of the London Stand to host 2 short but important 30 minute panel debates about how cities outside the UK are responding to BREXIT.

The idea of these sessions is not to be highly competitive but to focus on how BREXIT is influencing urban development outside UK. The panels should be informative and fun.

I hope to get 2 cities in each session. I am contacting 4-5 cities for each to check availability and interest.

EU Cities and BREXIT 1 Tuesday 13th March 12.00 to 12.30

Paris, Dublin. Frankfurt, Milano, Brussels. FOCUS on CORPORATES and FINANCIAL SERVICES

Paris [redacted], [redacted].

Frankfurt [redacted], [redacted]

Dublin [redacted], [redacted].

Milano [redacted], City of Milano

Brussels

Panel discussion

- How has your city responded to BREXIT so far? What opportunities has it created?
- How do you see your city's relationship with London going forwards?

EU Cities and BREXIT 2 Thursday 15th March 12.30 to 1.00

Berlin, Amsterdam, Stockholm, Barcelona, Oslo FOCUS on TALENT, INNOVATION, AND ENTERPRISE

Berlin [redacted], MD, Berlin Partner.

Amsterdam [redacted], Director of Capital Markets, City of Amsterdam.

Stockholm [redacted], [redacted].

Barcelona [redacted], [redacted]

Oslo [redacted], [redacted]
