Amsterdam has more bicycles than inhabitants. Resulting in crowded cycle paths and scarce parking space. Find useful cycling and parking tips on this map. Enjoy Amsterdam, the bicycle city of the world!

Tips for cycling in Amsterdam

- Try the recommended bicycle route through Amsterdam with more space for cycling.
- Avoid rush hour (between 07.00 - 09.00 and 16.30 – 18.30) for a more comfortable ride.

Safety regulations

Be mindful of the traffic regulations for cyclists. By not following the rules, you risk a fine up to a €160,-.

Do not cycle on the pavement

Stop for red light

Do not use your phone

Do not cycle under influence

Be visible at night

Give priority to traffic from the right

Keep right

Stay 3m behind a truck, they do not see you in their blind spot

Where to park your bicycle

- Park your bicycle in the indoor parking facilities or on the street in the designated sections and racks.
- Bicycle parking spaces can be found around all train- and subwaystations.
- Look out for these signs to see where bicycle parking on the street is (not) allowed.

Park in the designated section

Park in the rack

Do not park

- Bicycles not parked in the designated areas will be removed. Check if your bicycle has been removed on www.verlorenofgevonden.nl.
