Reminders

- * If you have not already, confirm your workshop attendance (by registering through TopLink or confirming the calendar invite)
- * Complete the brief survey to help prioritize workshop discussions
- * Read the Guidelines for City Mobility
- * Optional: Review the World Economic Forum overview (skim if you are interested in learning more about the broader organization)
- * Optional: Let me know if you would like to share a project/initiative with the group

Agenda

The virtual meeting room will open at 1 minute before the meeting start and the meeting will begin 2 minutes after the hour.

I. Welcome and agenda (2 min)

II. Council member introduction (6 min)

- * Council members who are new or could not join a welcome call share a brief introduction

III. Review of past GFC on Mobility activities (30 min)

- * Review of Guidelines for City Mobility
- * Review of pricing paper
- * Review of Agenda blogs
- * Discussion
 - * What went well?
 - * Could/should any efforts carry forward? How?

IV. Topics of interest for 2020-2021 activities (45 min)

- * Discussion, via breakouts, to define strategic issues or challenges shaping urban mobility. This discussion will be the first part in scoping 2021 GFC work.
- * Members will select which topic* they would like to discuss. Conversation goals:
 - * Discuss/review key challenges to the topic
 - * Determine if the GFC should tackle this topic by assessing potential outputs (goal is for GFC to focus on 2 topics in 2021)

*Topics have been identified through conversation with council members with preliminary brainstorming done via pre-workshop survey. Topics include:

1. Mobility platforms and data
2. Micromobility and active transport

3. Rethinking mass transit
4. Rethinking public space
5. Urban transport pricing
6. Electrification

V. Closing and next steps (5 min)

Following the meeting, 5.1, 2, e will remain on Zoom to answer any questions.
